

A Hildreth Salute

Sylvia Eller

Piano  1. From the shores of Grand Old Eng - land to the Mas - sa - chu - setts Bay, In the 6 year of Six - teen Thir - ty five, the Hil - dreth's made their way. Rich - ard and Thom - as, their 12 wives and child - ren too, left their be - lov ed home - land to cross the o - cean blue.

 18 Bul - ly for the Hil - dreth's; Bul - ly for the day. They brought their name and for - tunes to help

 24 build the U. S. A. 2. We sa - lute our Eng - lish cous - ins who made the choice to stay; Reach

 31 out our hands in friend ship, in the true A - mer - i - can way. We share with them our 36 leg - a - cy of truth and hon - e - sty, to pass on to our child - ren that they might wor - thy be.

© 2003 Sylvia Eller

Permission is granted to copy and perform
by and For DAR

2

Bul-ly for the Hil-dreth's, Bul-ly for the day. They brought their name and for-tunes to help build the U. S. A. [3] A-gain we join to-ge-ther for "Cheer and Chat-ter," too. Once more, the time to meet and greet our cous-ins old and new. We speak of hap-py mem-o-ries and plans for fu-ture years When once a-gain we share our lives, our love, our hopes and fears.

Bul-ly for the Hil-dreth's, Bul-ly for the day. They brought their name and for-tunes to help build the U. S. A. Bul-ly for the Hil-dreth's, Bul-ly for the day. They brought their name and for-tunes to help build the U. S. A.

Permission is granted to copy and perform by and for D A R